Statement from the Chair:

I am pleased to present to the Supreme Judicial Court the 2022 Annual Report of the Massachusetts Interest on Lawyers Trust Account (IOLTA) Committee.

In 2022, the IOLTA Committee continued its efforts to diversify its funding sources and worked extensively with Commonwealth banks to insure the best possible rates for IOLTA deposits. As we continue to navigate the complex economic and legal landscape shaped by the pandemic, our amazing staff consistently generate essential resources for civil legal services throughout Massachusetts.

More than 800,000 Massachusetts residents are eligible for free legal aid because their household income is at or below 125% of the federal poverty line - $34,688 a year for a family of four. But insufficient funding continues to force legal aid organizations to turn away almost half of eligible people who seek help—a truly staggering rate of unprovided services. Children and elders, rural residents and urban communities, people with disabilities, veterans and migrant workers continue to face unprecedented legal challenges with too small a fraction able to get the professional help they need. Massachusetts’ remarkable civil legal services providers continue to work heroically with insufficient resources to administer a wide swath of justice projects and to improve access to justice. Their efforts are funded by a variety of sources, including IOLTA grants distributed by the Boston Bar Foundation, the Massachusetts Bar Foundation, and the Massachusetts Legal Assistance Corporation.

The IOLTA Committee provides critical funding to help close the justice gap in Massachusetts. Since its inception in 1985, the IOLTA Committee has distributed more than $360 million. In 2022, the IOLTA Committee received more than $9 million in interest income. In addition, funds from opt-out registration fees, pro hac vice, and cy pres amounted to almost $5 million. The Committee also continues its ongoing work with the Court and Board of Bar Overseers to implement the Court’s Olchowski decision, which directed funds previously treated as abandoned to the IOLTA Committee. To date, the Committee has received nearly $1.4 million as a result of Olchowski and anticipates receiving additional undistributable IOLTA funds after the amendments to Rule of Professional Conduct 1.15 are finalized. All of these funds provide critically needed legal assistance in matters such as housing, elder care, domestic violence, child custody, employment, food, and other basic human needs.

The Committee expresses its deep appreciation to the Supreme Judicial Court for the Court’s dedication to and support for improving access to justice in Massachusetts. With the essential support of the Court and our partners in the bar, the IOLTA Committee is committed to improving the administration of justice and ensuring that legal services programs address the unmet civil legal needs of low-income and underserved residents of the Commonwealth.

Michael D. Badger
MASSACHUSETTS IOLTA PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The Supreme Judicial Court created the Interest on Lawyers’ Trust Accounts (IOLTA) program in 1985 by adding DR 9-102 (C) under Rule 3:07. On January 1, 1998, DR 9-102 (C) was replaced by Rule 1.15(e) of the Massachusetts Rules of Professional Conduct. Originally voluntary, the SJC converted IOLTA to a “comprehensive” program in 1990. As a result, lawyers holding funds on a client’s behalf must place the funds either in an account that pays interest to the client or in an IOLTA account. An IOLTA account is selected if the funds are relatively modest or will be held by the lawyer for only a short period: in either of these situations, the interest that might be earned for the client would be less than the cost of establishing and maintaining an account for the benefit of the client.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the IOLTA Committee is to increase access to justice for all residents of the Commonwealth by funding and supporting programs that provide civil legal services for low- and moderate-income residents and initiatives that improve the administration of justice.

THE CHARITABLE ENTITIES

The Boston Bar Foundation and the Massachusetts Bar Foundation are each governed by a board of trustees and have a long tradition of supporting a variety of public service activities. They have directed IOLTA funds toward activities such as alternative dispute resolution projects, judicial education, and pro bono attorney programs, as well as toward direct support of legal services programs. The Massachusetts Legal Assistance Corporation (MLAC) was established in 1983 by the Legislature to provide funds for civil legal assistance to low-income people throughout Massachusetts. It is governed by an eleven-member board of directors, ten of whom are appointed by the Supreme Judicial Court. The eleventh member is the Chief Justice for Administration and Management of the Trial Court or that Justice’s designee. In addition to IOLTA funds, MLAC distributes state appropriated funds and other grants to legal services providers.

IMPORTANT OF THE PROGRAM

Since the IOLTA program was created, the legal needs of people who cannot afford an attorney have grown in both scope and complexity. The nature of poverty has also changed. An increasing number of people work at low-paying jobs with no health insurance and few workplace protections, and they lack childcare and adequate transportation resources. A disproportionate slice of their income goes to housing that, because of short supply, is often both costly and substandard. These difficult circumstances and widening inequalities were compounded by the COVID-19 pandemic, which exposed already vulnerable Massachusetts residents to greater risk of eviction, unemployment, debt, food insecurity, domestic violence, and illness. As court and other services moved online, the pandemic also laid bare the digital divide, language and disability access barriers, and other challenges to the equitable and efficient administration of justice in Massachusetts. IOLTA funds are essential to addressing these challenges and making access to justice a reality for all because they provide significant revenues for legal aid and administration of justice programs in the Commonwealth.
IOLTA AND THE COMMUNITY REINVESTMENT ACT STATEMENT

In 1977, the federal Community Reinvestment Act (CRA) was established to encourage financial institutions to help meet the credit needs of the communities in which they operate, especially low-to-moderate income neighborhoods. A financial institution’s CRA statement is assessed by many factors. If a financial institution wishes to achieve an outstanding record of meeting community needs as rated by federal and state regulators, it is essential that the institution’s activities foster local community revitalization. Increasing IOLTA proceeds available for disbursement can benefit the local community through increased contributions to community development organizations and programs. The Committee has designed and distributed a pamphlet explaining how banks can support IOLTA under the CRA.

SUPPORT OF THE BANKING COMMUNITY

The IOLTA program would not be able to fill its vital role in sustaining critical programs throughout the Commonwealth without the participation and support of Massachusetts financial institutions. For over thirty years, Massachusetts banks and credit unions have voluntarily partnered with the IOLTA Committee to create this vital resource. In 2022, more than 200 banking institutions across the state maintained over 20,000 IOLTA accounts. The interest earned from these accounts helps meet the accelerating demand for civil legal services in the Commonwealth.

Throughout the year the IOLTA Committee works with individual financial institutions, the Massachusetts Bankers Association, and lawyers and law firms to insure the smooth and efficient operation of the program, and that IOLTA accounts are earning the maximum possible under Supreme Judicial Court Rules. As a result of the participation and cooperation of these participants, the Massachusetts IOLTA program has enjoyed tremendous success and is a national model for IOLTA programs.

Particularly with the ongoing challenges of COVID-19, we would like to thank our banking partners once again for making the Massachusetts IOLTA program so successful. Thousands of Massachusetts residents received the critical legal services they desperately needed because of our partnership. Those financial institutions that go above and beyond the basic requirements for participation to provide an even higher level of resources to IOLTA are called Leadership Banks. We encourage Massachusetts attorneys to consider a Leadership Bank for their IOLTA funds when possible. A full list of Leadership Banks can be found later in this document.
IOLTA Institutions

More than 95 percent of the banks in the Commonwealth participate in IOLTA and many waive service fees as part of their public service commitment. The IOLTA Committee gratefully acknowledges the participation and cooperation of all the financial institutions and offers its very special thanks to those institutions which have waived their normal service fees to the IOLTA program to show their support of this worthy community program.

IOLTA institutions include all financial institutions that are eligible to maintain IOLTA accounts, having been certified as in compliance with the interest rate comparability and other provisions of the IOLTA Guidelines revised in 2006. “Leadership Institutions” are those that go above and beyond the eligibility requirements of the Rule by paying the higher of 75% of the Federal Funds Target Rate or a net interest rate on all IOLTA funds of at least 1.00% APR. Leadership Institutions play an important role in supporting the IOLTA program in its mission to ensure that low-income Massachusetts residents have access to critically needed legal aid.

STATEWIDE
$4,469,794 to 20 organizations and programs
Statewide organizations specialize in specific subjects or types of law and serve people across the Commonwealth. Statewide organizations and programs also provide support to regional organizations, including subject-matter expertise, technology services, and other programmatic assistance.

Access to Justice Commission: $200,520
Strives to achieve equal justice for all persons in the Commonwealth by providing leadership and vision to, and coordination with, the many organizations and interested persons involved in providing and improving access to justice for those unable to afford counsel.

Center for Law and Education (CLE)

- General Support: $5,054
  The mission of CLE is to help all students receive a high-quality education. Rooted in both civil rights and school reform, CLE focuses on bringing the two together to address systemic barriers that impede students from low-income families – disproportionately students of color, English learners, and students with disabilities – from learning to high standards and remaining in school to learn.

- Tech Grant: $9,000
  Funds support the organization’s technology needs.

Center for Public Representation: $15,431
Provides back up and support to other legal services programs representing mentally disabled persons. Funds support the organization’s technology needs.

Children's Law Center of Massachusetts: $70,054
Aims to promote and secure equal justice and to maximize opportunity for low-income children and youth by providing quality educational and legal services. Services include direct representation, information and referral, technical assistance and training to attorneys, parents, and youth-serving professionals; community outreach and education; and systemic advocacy.

---

1 Grants of IOLTA funds made by MLAC, BBF, and MBF during the 2021-2022 grant cycle. In addition, MLAC expended $961,355 to provide support services to MLAC grantees: communications and marketing support ($217,778); monitoring and program management ($403,104); and data analysis and oversight ($340,473).
Disability Law Center: $15,567
Provides legal representation to low-income children and adults with mental and physical disabilities as well as technical assistance, support and back up to local legal services programs. Funds support the organization’s technology needs.

Equal Justice Coalition: $642,148
Advocates for expanded access to civil legal aid for low-income Massachusetts residents. The Coalition includes bar associations, law firms, law schools, legal aid organizations, and social service agencies who work together to protect and increase the state appropriation for civil legal aid.

Flaschner Judicial Institute: $155,000
Provides educational programs designed specifically for the Massachusetts judiciary.

Health Law Advocates, Inc. (HLA)

- General Support: $2,527
  HLA’s mission is to help Massachusetts residents with low income overcome barriers to health care. It focuses especially on serving those who are members of historically oppressed populations by organizing its work into programs that address systemic barriers to health care.

- Medical Legal Partnership for Immigrants: $15,000
  Increases access to healthcare for low-income immigrants by providing them with direct legal services to help them enroll in MassHealth and receive coverage for specific services. Also provides community education workshops and online toolkit with information about immigrants’ healthcare rights.

JRI Health Law Institute: $15,000
Provides legal assistance to indigent people living with HIV/AIDS, primarily in southeastern and western Massachusetts. Project lawyers provide representation on matters involving vital needs such as access to disability benefits, housing, and health insurance.

Lawyers Clearinghouse

- General Support: $10,108
  Harnesses the power of Massachusetts legal professionals to strengthen communities by connecting Massachusetts nonprofits and the homeless with pro bono lawyers.

- Legal Referral Program: $5,000
  Matches pro bono legal counsel with nonprofit organizations in need of but unable to afford legal assistance. Pro bono assistance is provided to eligible organizations that serve low-to-moderate income people or serve a compelling community need.
- Legal Clinic for the Homeless Program: $15,000
  Volunteer attorneys conduct legal services clinics at homeless shelters.

Massachusetts Advocates for Children

- General Support: $8,845
  Removes barriers to educational and life opportunities for children and youth by advocating for and partnering with students and families; transforms school culture to be inclusive, safe, and supportive; and creates systemic change so all children and youth can learn, reach their potential, and thrive.

- Children’s Law Support and Education Justice Project: $40,000
  Addresses the needs of Massachusetts children from low-income families who face barriers to equal educational opportunities by providing in-house and pro bono legal advice and representation. Also conducts systemic advocacy and provides training and support to private attorneys and advocates.

Massachusetts Appleseed Center for Law & Justice: $1,264
Promotes equal rights and opportunities for Massachusetts residents by developing and advocating for systemic solutions to social justice issues.

Massachusetts Immigrant and Refugee Advocacy Coalition (MIRA): $10,000
Provides an in-depth, 40-hour training on immigration law to staff at nonprofit organizations. After the training, MIRA supports training participants through the process of applying for recognition and accreditation through the DOJ’s Office of Legal Access Programs (formerly managed by the Board of Immigration Appeals).

Massachusetts Law Reform Institute (MLRI)

- General Support: $22,744
  Provides statewide advocacy and leadership in advancing laws, policies, and practices that secure economic, racial, and social justice for low-income people and communities.

- Statewide Equity, Stability, and Justice Project: $60,000
  Supports MLRI’s impact advocacy and technical assistance to frontline legal aid providers and anti-poverty advocates, with particular focus on immigration, housing, racial equity, and justice issues.

- Language Access: $100,000
  Furthers language access for underserved communities in Massachusetts through advocacy, training, and support for legal aid organizations.

- Legal Aid Websites Project: $412,093
  Provides online legal information and other resources to the general public and to the Massachusetts advocacy community through several websites.
- Mass Legal Answers Online: $10,000
  Supports a virtual legal helpline that allows low-income clients statewide to pose questions regarding civil legal issues via a secure website that will be answered online by pro bono attorneys.

- Technology Grant: $118,820
  Funds support the organization’s technology needs.

MLAC Central Technology Program: $1,766,267
Provides centralized technology services, hardware, software, telephonic services, storage and data warehousing and all other technology services to MLAC grantees.

MLAC Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Initiative: $260,743
Improves services to low-income clients by building cultural competence, addressing diversity-related issues, and promoting equity. Through education and training, improved hiring practices, statewide events, and collaboration, this initiative spurs legal aid organizations to reflect the diversity of their clients and exemplify shared values of justice and fairness. Hosts an annual conference.

Political Asylum Immigration Representation (PAIR)

- Detention Center Initiative: $52,000
  Advises and represents detained immigrants seeking asylum, waivers, and other relief in Immigration Court, and release on bond, parole, and habeas corpus petitions in federal court. Also conducts Know Your Rights presentations to detainees, refers clients to its pro bono and reduced fee panels, and trains attorneys on detainee issues.

- General Support: $40,433
  Works to promote the rights of unjustly detained immigrants and to secure safety and freedom for asylum-seekers fleeing persecution.

- Pro Bono Asylum Project: $63,000
  Represents immigrants seeking political asylum by combining the resources of the private bar, law schools, and nonprofit agencies. Also compiles an extensive training manual and conducts numerous training sessions for its pro bono attorney panel.

Prisoners’ Legal Services

- Bart Gordon Fellowship: $50,000
  Provides funding for a recent law school graduate to work to improve access to justice for people who face linguistic or cultural barriers to attaining legal assistance.

- Chronic and Infectious Disease Project: $45,000
  Aims to ensure that prisons and jails identify, provide treatment for, and accommodate prisoners with chronic illness and mental health issues, including Hepatitis C, HIV, MRSA, MS, diabetes, asthma, hypertension, and many others.
- General Support: $32,852
  Promotes the safe, humane, and lawful treatment of Massachusetts prisoners through civil rights litigation, administrative advocacy, client counseling, and outreach to policy makers and the public.

- Prison Brutality Project: $50,000
  Provides advocacy to prisoners who have been assaulted by correctional staff. Creates documentation of all instances where force or other acts of staff misconduct are used in a manner that violates prison regulations and other significant prisoners' rights.

- Racial Justice Fellowship: $75,000
  Provides funding for a position to use systemic advocacy and other strategies to address pervasive problems of racial injustice, given the disproportionately high rate of poverty in communities of color and the unmet legal needs of these communities.

Veterans Legal Services

- General Support: $17,689
  Promotes self-sufficiency, stability, and financial security for veterans in Massachusetts through comprehensive and accessible legal services.

- Veterans Legal Services Clinics: $50,000
  Provides free civil legal services to low-income military veterans so that they may achieve and maintain stable housing, economic security, and healthy families. Services are delivered onsite at veterans' homeless shelters, service centers, and VA facilities and range from on-the-spot advice to full representation.

Women's Bar Foundation: $27,635
The Family Law Project for Domestic Abuse Survivors provides referrals for pro bono legal assistance to low-income survivors of domestic violence. Recruits and provides ongoing training and mentoring for volunteer attorneys in the areas of domestic violence, divorce, child support, custody, and visitation.
REGIONAL
Regional organizations provide advice and representation to people who cannot afford an attorney and who are facing civil legal issues related to housing, health care, public benefits, immigration, domestic violence, and other serious issues. Organizations are listed in the region where they provide all or the majority of their services. Many statewide organizations also provide regional services and support regional programs. INDEPENDENT AUDITORS’ REPORT

The Members
Massachusetts IOLTA Committee
Boston, Massachusetts

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Opinion
We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Massachusetts IOLTA Committee, which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, and the related statements of activities, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Massachusetts IOLTA Committee as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion
We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors’ Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Massachusetts IOLTA Committee and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements
Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Massachusetts IOLTA Committee’s ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.
Auditors’ Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors’ report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Massachusetts IOLTA Committee’s internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Massachusetts IOLTA Committee’s ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

NOTE 1 NATURE OF ACTIVITIES

The Massachusetts IOLTA Committee (the Committee) was established, and members appointed, by the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court to provide for the operation of the comprehensive Interest on Lawyers Trust Accounts (IOLTA) program, as adopted by the order of the Supreme Judicial Court, dated September 26, 1989.

IOLTA income is the result of interest earned on pooled client fund accounts, which are used by attorneys to hold client funds that are either so nominal in amount, or expected to be held for such a short period of time, that it would not be practical to establish individual accounts. There are currently more than 200 banks and over 20,000 attorneys participating in this program, which helps to fund improvements in the administration of justice and delivery of legal services to low income clients.

Prior to January 1, 1993, interest earned on IOLTA accounts was paid by banks to one of three charities, as designated by the attorney. Effective January 1, 1993, the court amended its rule so that the Massachusetts IOLTA Committee was the initial recipient of all IOLTA funds throughout the state. The Committee then distributes all of the available funds to the three charitable entities based on percentages set up in the Court Rule and Order as follows:

- Boston Bar Foundation 7%
- Massachusetts Bar Foundation 26%
- Massachusetts Legal Assistance Corporation 67%

IOLTA funds are used by each of the three entities to provide grants to providers of direct legal services for the poor and other not-for-profit organizations throughout the state. Each of the three entities is required by the court order to absorb the costs of the Committee in the same proportion by which they receive funds. Monthly, the entities are charged one-twelfth of the Committee’s annual operating budget. At year-end, the fees are reconciled to the actual expenses and the difference between budgeted and actual expenses is either paid to or collected from the entities subsequent to year-end.

On June 9, 2010, the Supreme Judicial Court added an option to the Board of Bar Overseers registration fee called the Access to Justice Fee. This fee is $51 and is to be used in the administration of justice and provision of civil legal services to those who cannot afford them. The Access to Justice Fee is voluntary. The receipts received by the Committee from the Access to Justice Fee payments are distributed in their entirety to the charitable entities described above.

As of September 4, 2012, Massachusetts requires that prior to filing a motion to have out-of-state counsel admitted pro hac vice in certain appellate courts, out-of-state counsel must pay a nonrefundable pro hac vice registration fee of $301 per case. During 2018, the pro hac vice registration fee was increased to $355. The pro hac vice registration fee remained at $101 for district court cases. These fees are paid to the Board of Bar Overseers (the Board), and which on a quarterly basis are given to the Committee. The receipts received by the Committee from the pro hac vice fee payments are distributed in their entirety to the charitable entities described above.

In Massachusetts, unclaimed funds from class action lawsuits are distributed to appropriate not-for-profit organizations. During 2009, the Supreme Judicial Court determined that legal services and IOLTA programs are appropriate recipients of class action residual awards. The receipts received by the Committee from the class action residual awards are distributed in their entirety to the charitable entities described above.

On October 1st, 2020, the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court updated the legal status of property previously treated as abandoned under G.L. 200A, s.3. In that Ruling the Court stated that unidentified IOLTA funds do not fall under the state’s abandoned property statute and must be transferred to the IOLTA Committee for disposition. As a result of this ruling, during the year ended December 31, 2021 the Massachusetts Treasurer’s Office transferred to the IOLTA Committee $1,127,318. Additionally, the Massachusetts Board of Bar Overseers transferred to the IOLTA Committee $260,102. Of these amounts as of December 31, 2021, $806,442 was payable to the charitable entities described above and $580,978 was held back as a reserve against potential future claims. During 2022, an additional $3,680 was transferred to the IOLTA Committee and payments on these payables were made in the total amount of $810,122 and the reserve remained at $580,978. The IOLTA Committee will adjust future amounts reserved based on its experience with actual claims. There were no claims made against the unidentified IOLTA funds described above during 2021 or 2022.

NOTE 2   SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

A summary of the significant accounting policies followed by the Committee in the preparation of the accompanying financial statements is set forth below.

Basis of Financial Statements
The financial statements of the Committee have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Accordingly, the accounts of the Committee are reported in the following net asset categories:

Net Assets Without Donor Restrictions – Net assets without donor restrictions represent available resources other than donor-restricted contributions.

Net Assets With Donor Restrictions – Net assets with donor restrictions represent contributions that are restricted by the donor as to purpose or time of expenditure and also include accumulated investment income and gains on donor-restricted endowment assets that have not been appropriated for expenditure. Net assets with donor restrictions also represent resources that have donor-imposed restrictions that require that the principal be maintained in perpetuity but permit the Committee to expend the income earned thereon.

At December 31, 2022 and 2021, the Committee did not have net assets with donor restrictions.
NOTE 2 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Use of Estimates
The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could vary from the estimates that were used.

Cash and Cash Equivalents
For purposes of the statements of cash flows, the Committee considers all highly liquid investments with an initial maturity of 90 days or less to be cash equivalents.

Basis of Presentation
Revenue from IOLTA receipts is recorded when received. All other income and expenses are recorded when incurred.

Revenue Recognition
The Committee recognizes revenue at a point in time when the funds are approved based on the Court Rule and Order.

Functional Allocation of Expenses
The costs of providing various programs and other activities have been reported on a functional basis. All costs are directly applied to program and support services benefited. Program costs are the fees distributed to the three charitable entities on a monthly basis. General and administrative costs are administrative fees paid to the Massachusetts Legal Assistance Corporation (see Note 4).

Income Taxes
The Committee is not subject to federal income taxes because it is an integral part of the commonwealth of Massachusetts constituted under the Supreme Judicial Court. It does not require exemption under Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code as an exempt organization.

Subsequent Events
The Committee has evaluated subsequent events through March 20, 2023, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.
NOTE 3 CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

The Committee has a potential concentration of credit risk in that it maintains deposits with financial institutions in excess of amounts insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC). The maximum deposit insurance amount was $250,000, which was applied per depositor, per insured bank, for each account ownership category. As of December 31, 2022 and 2021, the Committee had balances of $21,400 and $21,253, respectively, in excess of FDIC limits. The Committee has not experienced any losses in such accounts or instruments. The Committee believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash and cash equivalents.

NOTE 4 RELATED PARTY

A monthly administrative fee is paid to the Massachusetts Legal Assistance Corporation (MLAC) based on one-twelfth of the annual operating budget as approved by the Committee. MLAC provides services to the Committee including payroll, purchasing, rent and other accounting and administrative services. The budget is reconciled to actual expenses at year-end, and the difference between the budgeted and actual expenses is either paid to or received from MLAC subsequent to year-end. The administrative fee expenses totaled $699,638 and $743,367 for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively. The amount payable to MLAC was $21,535 and $8,299 as of December 31, 2022 and 2021.

Additionally, the nine-member committee appointed by the Supreme Judicial Court that oversees the Committee is composed of three members nominated by each of the three charitable entities that are beneficiaries: Boston Bar Foundation, Massachusetts Bar Foundation, and the Massachusetts Legal Assistance Corporation.

NOTE 5 LIQUIDITY AND AVAILABILITY OF RESOURCES

The Committee’s financial assets available within one year of the financial statement position date for general expenditure are cash and cash equivalents of $2,823,291 and $2,775,926 for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively. The Committee receives cash in monthly installments and distributes these amounts the following month while keeping a small reserve.

The Committee maintains a policy of structuring its financial assets to be available as its general expenditures, liabilities and other obligations come due each month.

Leadership Institutions are those that go above and beyond the eligibility requirements of the IOLTA Rule to support the IOLTA Committee in its mission to ensure that Massachusetts residents who cannot afford an attorney have access to critically needed legal help.

Leadership Institutions pay the higher of 75% of the Federal Funds Target Rate or 1.00% net interest rate on all IOLTA funds.

Leadership Institutions will be highlighted throughout the year at Bar events, in legal publications, and on social media so that attorneys and law firms are aware of their contribution and exceptional support of the program.
Cy pres awards are residual funds in class action cases or other types of matters that, for any number of reasons, are unclaimed or cannot be distributed to the class members or intended beneficiaries. Under the cy pres doctrine and Massachusetts law, courts can distribute these funds to charitable causes such as the IOLTA Committee or legal aid organizations. Cy pres awards are a vital source of funding for the IOLTA Committee and the legal aid organizations and access to justice projects the Committee supports. In 2022, the IOLTA Committee received cy pres or other residual funds in 32 matters totaling more than $2.8 million.

For more information about cy pres and other types of residual awards and how you can make an impact by recommending such an award be directed to the IOLTA Committee, please contact Jenna Miara at jmiara@maiolta.org or at 617.963.3903.

The IOLTA Committee is grateful to the following law firms and the many individual lawyers within those firms for their role in recommending that cy pres awards be directed to the IOLTA Committee in 2022:
